

FEW CASES REMAIN ON COURT DOCKET

Rapid Progress Made During Session of Corporation Court at Danville.

MAN TELLS PATHETIC STORY

Collapses in Front of Y. M. C. A. Building After Three-Day Fast.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., September 7.—With ten more cases remaining to be tried in the Corporation Court, and these of minor importance, the session will probably be adjourned before the end of the coming week. Rapid progress has marked the term, a number of robberies, felonious assaults and one murder case having been disposed of during the foregoing week. The ten cases now on the docket are all of the same nature—"blind tiger" cases, and all of the ill-fated vendors who are convicted are likely to fare badly. Judge Peaslee made this plain on Friday, when a negro, who was convicted in the Mayor's Court of selling whiskey, and who had been fined $50 and sentenced to thirty days in jail, appealed to the higher court, and was fined $100 by a jury. The court added a sixty-day prison term to the jury's verdict, and declared that all defendants who were convicted in the Mayor's Court, and who appealed their cases, would, upon conviction, get a similar jail sentence.

One case, which was tried last week, and which had an amusing side to it, was the Commonwealth of Virginia versus Amos Irvin, a negro who was indicted for perjury. Irvin was found by police officers several weeks ago on Lynn Street with a bullet through his thigh. He told the officer who picked him up that Jack Johnson, a well-known boxer, had been fighting at him during an argument. Johnson was later arrested, and when the preliminary hearing came up, Irvin swore that he did not know who had shot him. The Mayor promptly bound him over to the grand jury on a charge of perjury, and Johnson was also held for felonious assault. The grand jury found true bills in each instance, but the petit jury freed Johnson for the assault and gave Irvin two years in the penitentiary for bearing false witness.

Tells Pathetic Story.
A pathetic story was told late on Saturday night by John Braun, a man in destitute circumstances, who, after a three-day fast, collapsed in front of the Young Men's Christian Association building and who was carried into that institution by passers-by who saw him fall. After two physicians had restored him to consciousness by the use of stimulants, he declared that he was from Pittsburgh, and had reached Danville on Saturday morning from Lynchburg, where he had been working in a cotton mill. He was anxious to reach Danville, where he hoped to secure

Steinway

Four successive generations of the same family have applied the hereditary genius to the building of the STEINWAY PIANO.

Like other great successes, this business has been a growth, and public appreciation has kept pace with artistic development, until to-day the fame of the name is as wide as the music-loving world. This well-earned prestige should influence your choice of a piano.

We are the exclusive representatives of the STEINWAY Piano in North Carolina and Virginia—send for catalogue, handsomely illustrated—absolutely free.

other employment, but having only money enough to pay the railroad half-way to this city, he was put off the train near Syracuse and footed it from that point. Penniless, he reached the city and spent most of the day tramping round trying to get work and without eating. He fell unconscious at 8 o'clock, and after being revived was turned over to the Chief of Police, who will probably place him in the poorhouse until he has regained his strength, or until somebody takes compassion on him.

LAUNCH NEW MAGAZINE

Suffragists Fire What They Call Their "Sixteen-Inch Gun."

Washington, September 7.—The woman suffragists fired what they called a "sixteen-inch gun" to-day when they launched their new magazine, The Suffragist, into being. It is to be a weekly publication, and the managers have set 200,000 as their subscription list. Mrs. Rheta Childe Dorr is to be editor-in-chief, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs.

The magazine will be sent to each Congressman weekly, with certain passages marked, that it may be well for him to notice. One of the principal objects of starting the magazine is to work up interest in the plan of a suffrage amendment to the United States Constitution.

Miss Newell's guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eckman, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKim, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Lanthorne, Mr. and Mrs. Easton Purvis, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. ## FAREWELL REPRISALS PARADES

Parade of Catholic Athletes, to Be Received by Pope, Prohibited by Police.

Rome, September 7.—Troops and police to-day guarded the streets of Rome from the Church of St. John, where the Catholic athletes heard mass, to St. Peter's, to which edifice they marched to be received by the Pope.

A great parade had been planned by the Catholic athletes, but was prohibited by the police, on account of threatened reprisals by the anticlericals. Notwithstanding the strict measures to insure order, a few disturbances occurred amid cries from the Catholics of "Long live the Pope," to which the anticlericals responded by shouting "Long live free thinking."

Four hours were occupied by the athletes in reaching St. Peter's, where they unfurled flags and passed into the court of San Damaso. They knelt when the Pope appeared on the balcony, surrounded by the pontifical court.

The athletes, pilgrims and others in the assembly numbered 8,000, and after the apostolic benediction had been imparted they arose and gave a triple shout. They then inquired regarding the obstacles which had been placed in the way of the demonstration and urged extreme prudence.

U. D. C. OFFICERS ELECTED.

Large Increase in Membership of Flora Stuart Chapter at Pulaski.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pulaski, Va., September 7.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Flora Stuart Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, Friday afternoon, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Miss Maude Darst, president; Mrs. S. S. Wall, vice-president; Mrs. F. W. Morton, secretary; Mrs. E. D. Calfee, treasurer; Mrs. J. R. K. Bell, corresponding secretary; Miss Tillie Fitzhugh, registrar; Miss Julia Leache, historian. The chapter numbers forty-nine members, having doubled its membership under the six years' administration of Mrs. J. R. K. Bell, who declined re-election. During the year the chapter was raised from $12.50, of which amount $7.50 was expended for local charity work. Delegates to the State convention, which meets the first week in October at Richmond, were named as follows: Mrs. C. E. Tate and Miss Viola Bosang, delegates; Mrs. D. Calfee and Miss Maude Darst, alternates.

The first of the blue grass cattle to be shipped from Dublin this season was a car sent out on Thursday by Julius Buford to his customers in Kentucky. The load contained eighteen cattle, which averaged in weight 1,500 pounds each. Dublin is the principal shipping point for cattle of Pulaski County.

Miss Virginia Newell was the hostess at an evening of Five Hundred on Friday at the country home of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Phelps, in compliance to her guest, Mrs. Peyton Calfee, of Washington. J. W. Miller received the men's prize, a hand bag tag, and Mrs. W. S. Gilmer the woman's prize, a souvenir spoon. Mrs. Peyton Calfee, of Washington, was generally acknowledged as the best of the guests.

Miss Newell's guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eckman, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKim, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Lanthorne, Mr. and Mrs. Easton Purvis, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. SUCCESSOR TO LAWLESS.

Visited by Many Fires.

Leesburg Section of Loudoun County Suffers Several Losses.

Leesburg, Va., September 7.—This section of Loudoun County has been visited by quite a number of fires lately, and the toll has been quite an expensive one. On Friday of last week Ryan, in the Broad Run District, lost a number of barrels of wheat, the fire being caused by sparks from a Holmer stack on the same day Hugh Holmer, a wheat stack on his farm near Paconian Springs struck by lightning and destroyed by fire. On Friday night a new hay barn, containing about a hundred tons of baled hay, belonging to Westmoreland Davis, was struck by lightning and completely destroyed, in spite of the rain which was pouring on it in torrents. There were two other fires last Friday which were visible from Leesburg. One was in the direction of Woodburn and the other was across the Potomac and a good distance over in Maryland. In short, the storm which visited this section of the State, bit of damage, but on the whole this is probably offset by the immense amount of property which was saved by the much-needed wetting.

WOULD REDUCE SCHOOL BOARD.

Definite Action Looking Toward Curbing Membership.

Portsmouth, Va., September 7.—An effort will shortly be made to reduce the size of the membership of the city school board, which now has a membership of twenty-one, as recommended by law, which designates that there shall be three members for each of the seven districts to be formed by regularly designated school districts. More than a year ago Mr. Brinkley offered a resolution to bring about a reduction of the size of the board when the annexation of Pinners Point and Port Norfolk was under consideration, and that resolution contained a section pending the action of the court in the annexation proceedings, which was later dropped and made the motion inactive.

In order to bring the matter up in its proper shape, Mr. Brinkley Friday night moved a reconsideration of their action, and later offered a motion calling for a committee of one from each of the seven districts to formulate a report on the matter to be submitted to the board at a later meeting. The chairman then named John Nash, W. W. Perkins, James T. Whitehurst, Dr. M. W. Wynn, and Mr. Decker and S. M. Ripley as the committee to formulate the report to be presented to the board.

GOES INTO ACTIVE MINISTRY.

Secretary of Y. M. C. A. at Clifton Forge Tenders Resignation.

Clifton Forge, September 7.—Rev. F. Black, who has been secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. for the past two years, tendered his resignation last night, and will take effect on the 1st of October or the 1st of November, whichever is best suited the Y. M. C. A. directors.

Mr. Black will go from here to take charge of the pastorate of the churches at Holland and Holy Neck at Holland, two of the best pastores of the Christian Church in Eastern Virginia. Since he came here he found he had no church of his particular denomination, and has attended services mostly in the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Black has made quite a mark as a local pastor, and his financial end has been particularly good.

SNAKE AND BEAR STORY.

Party of Young People Frightened by Strange Spectacle.

Harrisonburg, Va., September 7.—From Spring Creek, Rockingham county, a party of young people were startled by the approach of a huge black bear. To their amazement they saw that a huge black snake was coiled around the back of the bear with its coils around Bruin's neck. Fortunately the beast and snake appeared to be in a "reference" and the frightened young folks hastily retreated to camp.

WANTS BAPTIST TO OWN FARM.

Provision in Will of the Late Rev. J. A. Speight.

Norfolk, Va., September 7.—"I will that my farm at Suffolk, Virginia, and if within the bounds of reason, it be sold to a Baptist man." Such was the declaration in the will of the late Rev. J. A. Speight, who died recently in this city. Dr. J. R. Speight, a son of the dead man, qualified as executor under a bequest of $4,000. The estate, valued at $9,000, will be divided equally among the children of Mr. Speight. "One of the best known Baptist preachers in this section of Virginia."
